

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 11, 1846.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. ATCHISON made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Jane Heyl, praying a pension, report :

That, from the petition and documents referred, they find the following facts : Sergeant Heyl, the husband of the petitioner, was a soldier in company H, third regiment of artillery, and died of the cholera, whilst engaged in the service of the United States, in the year 1832. There is no law allowing pensions in cases of this kind, nor can the committee see any good reason why the case of the petitioner should be made an exception to the general rule. Therefore—

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner be rejected.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 11, 1845.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Atchison made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Jane Hely, praying a pension, report:

That from the petition and documents referred, they find the following: Sergeant Hely, the husband of the petitioner, was a soldier in company H, third regiment of artillery, and died of the cholera, whilst engaged in the service of the United States in the year 1834. There is no law authorizing pensions in cases of this kind, nor can the committee see any reason why the case of the petitioner should be made an exception to the general rule. Therefore—

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner be rejected.
